

To Our Students: The CPD team is thinking about your wellbeing. We are working from home to provide the same level of support that we offer on campus, just in a virtual manner.

This is the first issue of a weekly newsletter which you will receive for the remainder of the semester. We hope you will find that it offers timely information and guidance. In this first issue, you will also find photos of our “new colleagues” steadfastly assisting us with our work at home. Our newsletter is viewable on our website and also in Handshake. We miss you and are here for you! Amy, Michele, Beverly, Olivia, & Sharon

VIRTUAL RESOURCES

“Ask Me Anything” daily sessions for students, hosted by Handshake University Career Services Partners. April 1 - April 17 at 12pm. Hosted on Zoom.

Unsure what to say when introducing yourself to potential employers or others? Watch our CareerSpots video on the “Elevator Pitch”.

Corononomics: What the outbreak means for jobs, student loans, and your future (Virtual Panel Discussion) Wed. 4/1 at Noon: The novel coronavirus has brought about tremendous upheaval for the United States and world economies. For college students, what does it all mean? Will there be jobs for seniors after graduation? What is happening to internships? What relief is available for student loan borrowers?

Will the stimulus package help? These and other issues will be the topic of virtual panel discussion featuring representatives from the Ursinus business and economics faculty; Career and Post-Graduate Development, and UCIMCO, the college's student-managed investment fund.

Panelists include

- Business and Economics faculty Scott Deacle, Andrew Economopoulos, Vera Brusentsev and Chris Herdelin
- Career and Post-Graduate Development Director Sharon Hansen
- UCIMCO student leader Parker Wolf '20
