

Year in Review

November 4, 2021
Chief Brad KillsCrow and Assistant Chief Jeremy Johnson of the Delaware Tribe of Indians visited campus as part of the Welcome Home Project, a partnership that includes Ursinus College and the Perkiomen Valley School District.

November 30, 2021
A giving record of 2,122 donors make contributions totaling more than $530,000 in support of #Giving2UCday.

December 9, 2021
Ursinus is included in Colleges of Distinction, a one-of-a-kind guide for college-bound students that recognizes institutions whose primary goals are based on student success and satisfaction.

January 18, 2022
Our traditional Day of Service, lightning lectures, and workshops held in conjunction with Perkiomen Valley School District marked the start of the college's annual MLK Week, a celebration honoring the life of Martin Luther King Jr. and the legacy of the Civil Rights Movement.

February 23, 2022
Every Student's Success, the college's next strategic plan, is announced to the Ursinus community by Interim President Marsteller, committing to helping all students enrolled at Ursinus achieve their full potential while in college and in the years following graduation.

March 4, 2022
The Ursinus Board of Trustees names Clarkson University Provost Robyn Hannigan, an environmental scientist and entrepreneur, the 19th president of Ursinus.

March 15, 2022
President-Elect Hannigan addresses the Ursinus community for the first time on Strassburger Commons, followed by a luncheon in the Floy Lewis Bakes Field House.

March 28, 2022
Ursinus announced a pledge from Arlene McLean '62, one of largest individual gift commitments in Ursinus history to endow the Andrews Family Fellows Fund, supporting an annual cohort of advanced-degree-seeking STEM students.

April 4, 2022
Ursinus announces that it will become the eighth college or university in Pennsylvania with an NCAA women's wrestling program and the first Centennial Conference school to offer women's wrestling as a varsity sport.

April 12, 2022
Ursinus signs a statement of mutual intentions with the Delaware Tribe of Indians and drafts a land acknowledgement statement as part of its Welcome Home Project.

May 12, 2022
Fifty students are inducted into Phi Beta Kappa in the 30th anniversary year of the prestigious national honor society.

May 13-14, 2022
Former NFL player and TV broadcaster Vai Sikahema and artist Katie Merz, who created the Live the Questions smokestack mural, address 309 graduates at baccalaureate and commencement, respectively, as the ceremonies return to the Berman Museum lawn for the first time since 2019.

May 16, 2022
The Jill Leauber Marsteller '78, P'18 Staff Professional Development Fund is established to support Ursinus staff members' career enhancement and to acknowledge Marsteller's longtime commitment to the mentorship of her colleagues.

June 7, 2022
Joseph DeSimone '86, P'12, a nationally renowned scientist and inventor, is named chair of the Ursinus College Board of Trustees.

July 1, 2022
Robyn Hannigan begins her first day as Ursinus's new president communicating a vision for "One Ursinus" and urging the community to "harness what's possible."

September 1, 2021
Jill Leauber Marsteller '78, P'18, officially becomes interim president of Ursinus College.

September 12, 2021
Recognized again as a top 100 liberal arts college in the nation, U.S. News & World Report lauds Ursinus for its undergraduate teaching, calling it among the best in Pennsylvania and ranking it among its best value schools.

August 26, 2021
Ursinus welcomed all 440 members of the Class of 2025—again one of the largest and most diverse incoming classes in history—to the Bear family during its traditional convocation ceremony.

October 22, 2021
The Schellhase Commons is officially dedicated in honor of its namesake, Richard T. Schellhase '45 and Kay Kerper Schellhase '57, during an intimate ceremony with the Schellhase family.

twenty one twenty two