Courses: Students pursuing secondary-school teaching certification in Spanish must take a minimum of 24 credit hours in Spanish at the 200, 300 and 400 levels. The following courses are required: SPAN-251, 252, 317, and 328; SPAN 440W or 492; and at least one other 300- or 400-level course. Students may also need to take SPAN-201 and 202 as prerequisites for the other courses, depending on their language skills upon arrival at Ursinus.

Study Abroad: Language majors and students preparing for certification are also required to supplement their work at Ursinus by spending a summer, a semester or an entire year in a foreign country with a program approved by the department.

Competency Exams: In addition to the course requirements, students are required to pass a qualifying examination before they will be admitted to candidacy for certification and a competency examination before being certified. These tests will examine students' linguistic competence, orally and in writing, testing phonetics, conversation, grammar and composition.
